The condition of Chief Justice Ryan remains about the same. He is extremely low, and his physician says it is impossible for him to recover.

The Democrats in Congress think there is greater wisdom in being idle and making no serious blunders than going to work and be constantly blundering.

President Hayes has nominated Charles A. Gallaway to be Collector of Internal Revenue, for the Third District of this State, vice Kutchin refused confirmation.

The Republicans will give the Democrats some severe blows during the campaign, but the heaviest blows will come from members of their own party. It will be a regular Kilkenny cat fight, and each will eat the other up.

The difference between the Republicans and the Democrats on Presidential candidates is this: The Republicans have a good supply of strong men, while the Democrats haven't one candidate who they have any hope can be elected.

The winter in Montana Territory has been unusually severe, and several times the thermometer has gone to fifty-five degrees below zero. The snow has averaged a foot in depth, and at Fort Keogh, mails are received one in about twenty days.

The Senate Finance Committee did a wise thing in reporting against Sackett's bill to oppress the Northwestern Life Insurance Company, by increasing the tax from two to five per cent. There is such a strong feeling against such vicious legislation, that the bill will be killed.

Father Munch, of this city, has shown us a copy of the Dublin Freeman's Journal, a daily paper, containing fifty-six columns, and which sells for two cents a copy. The price is beggarly low, and no wonder mechanics and laboring men are starving when they have to work for the wages which will produce such a paper.

We have a good deal of respect for some of the women who are engaged in advocating female suffrage, but their cause is a doubtful one. We think the Iowa woman made a pretty sharp hit, and was not far from right, when she said—"This whole thing of woman suffrage is simply a desire on the part of some women to pick a quarrel with the Almighty for not having made them men."

There is going to be fun between Bayard and Tilden. Tilden has been hunted up and has caused to be published, the old war speech of the Delaware Senator; on the other hand, Bayard is now engaged in seeking for Tilden's war record. He will not have to search very long to find all he wants against the Sage of Gramercy Park.
This condition of things will create some amusement for the country. When one member of the Democratic party begins to accuse another member of having a bad war record, then there is a chance for a lively time, as one is as deep in the mud as the other is in the mire.

One of the marked speeches delivered before any body of the Legislature this winter, was that of Mrs. Marion V. Dudley, of Milwaukee, made before the Assembly Committee on State Affairs. She strongly advocated the adoption of the resolution which seeks to amend the Constitution so that women can vote. The Journal says "it was bold and fresh in thought, polished in style, and thoroughly convincing in its chain of reasoning. There was a very general attendance of members of both houses of the Legislature, and many of the friends of this gifted lady, outside of the Legislature, took the occasion to listen to her admirable paper. The Legislature itself, in token of its appreciation of this paper, has, by joint resolution, requested a copy for publication, and ordered one thousand copies printed for the use of the members." This very complimentary resolution was adopted by a vote of 47 to 28, but we judge the Legislature is not in a frame of mind to adopt the resolution to amend the Constitution.

The vast accumulation of silver in the vaults of the Treasury at Washington, is a matter of considerable importance, and gives the officials not a little concern.
There are at present about thirty millions of the silver dollars piled up in the vaults, and what to do with them is a puzzling question to the Administration. There is another matter which attracts much attention and creates discussion. While the bulk of silver is constantly increasing, the pile of gold is rapidly on the decrease.
This is owing to the facts that silver is not wanted, and that our imports are greater than our exports, which takes gold out of the Treasury. Should this drainage of gold continue till midsummer, the stock of that metal on hand at Washington, will be very low. What the Government can do to remedy the evil has not been made public. Secretary Sherman will soon prepare a circular on the subject, but what he will suggest as a remedy is not known to the outside world. What the Government should do, it can, is to get the silver out of the vaults and place it in the hands of the people.

THE EVIL OF INDIVIDUAL CLUBS.
It would seem that every thoughtful and intelligent Republican would see the evils which might readily grow out of the movement now on foot in many places to organize certain clubs in the Republican party—clubs which are in fact antagonistic. In the same city we find the Grant

AN OUTLAW'S WEDDING.

A Midnight Call on a Minister in North Carolina to Perform the Marriage Ceremony.

STATESVILLE, March 3.—Intelligence was received here of a remarkable wedding which took place in Alexandria last night at 12 o'clock. Buck Singleton, one of the bravest and most desperate moonshiners, was the groom, and Lillie Latour, the pretended 18 year old daughter of the late celebrated Morgan Latour, called the "Cling of the still" was the blushing bride. For several days past the gang of distillers have been hotly pursued by the revenue raiders —in fact, so closely were they followed that it was found inconvenient to stop in the daytime. When they reached the wildest and most inaccessible part of Alexandria county they sent two men to do pick-up duty, while the chief of the band directed two others to go on a scouting tour for a minister to perform the marriage ceremony. They rode twenty-seven miles and finally succeeded in finding Rev. Daniel Dawson, a Baptist minister. They begged the minister to go with them, stating that they had a very ill friend, who wanted to be married so that his affianced might get his fortune in case he died. The men were gentlemen, said the minister, ignorant of their character, accompanied them. When he got to the rendezvous he was asked to perform the ceremony as quickly as possible, and he did so. The happy husband then slipped him on the shoulder and gave him $50 in gold, after which the astonished divine was escorted back home, and "three cheers for the parish boys" had been proposed and given with a will. The gang this morning were pushing on to the mountains closely followed by the revenue raiders.

MADISON, March 4.—In the Senate this morning an exciting and extraordinary scene occurred between Senators Hyde and Van Schaick, of Milwaukee. The latter asked for leave of absence on account of giving away of a water power in Milwaukee. The former accused him of only desiring to spirit away the bill to divide the west sewerage district of Milwaukee, which Van Schaick had in his pocket.
Hyde wanted to keep the latter till he should report on the bill. Burrows and McFarland also wanted to hold Van Schaick on account of Biennial Session contest which will come up tonight. Hyde in a vigorous speech said the sewerage bill in question was to reform a system by which his district had been robbed of one hundred thousand dollars, and he wanted an opportunity to prove this before the Senate. After some exchange of personal recrimination between the two Milwaukee Senators, the Senate refused to let Van Schaick go, but he announced he should go home nevertheless.
He finally consented to report on the bill.
Paul surprised the Senate by seconding Van Schaick in the recommendation of indefinite postponement. Hyde, after warm opposition, secured the postponement of the consideration till Tuesday.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

EXAMINATIONS!

For First District, Rock County.

The Annual Teachers' Institute will be held in the High School building, at Janesville, commencing on MONDAY, APRIL 5, 1880.

At 10 o'clock a. m., under the management of the well-known and efficient conductor, Prof. A. SALISBURY. The institute will continue two weeks and no pains will be spared to make it one of unusual interest and profit to all.

Teachers know so well the need of this valuable enterprise, that it is needless to urge their attendance. It is hoped that no trivial ordinary excuse will prevent any from being present.

A syllabus containing an outline of work will be sent to those desiring to attend, thus giving an opportunity to make early and careful preparation upon the subjects to be presented.

Certificates of attendance will be issued to those taking part which may be of use in securing rebates.

Examinations will be held as follows:

- At Newark Center, March 15 and 16.
- At Onondaga, March 17 and 18.
- At Portville, March 19 and 20.
- At Otisville, March 21 and 22.
- At Rock River School, March 23 and 24.
- At Janesville, April 5 and 6.

Examinations will commence promptly at 9:30 a. m. If not present at the appointed hour, teachers must forfeit the certificate.

In granting certificates, the law will be strictly adhered to. Do not ask for rebates, transfers or excuses.

Persons wishing to teach must qualify themselves and be willing to stand the test of an examination.

District Boards are requested not to be in haste in employing teachers. Applications will be considered. Make inquiries respecting the applicants' ability to teach, govern, etc., employing only those who manifest a real interest in their vocation, and paying them fair wages for their services.

All are cordially invited to attend the examinations and institute.

MIS

BRIEFLETS.

—Military meetings to-night.
—Soft roads make hard wheeling.
—Prayers at the churches this evening.
—Special services at both the Methodist churches this evening.
—The Doctor of Alcantara at Lappin's hall next Monday and Tuesday evenings.
—The neekie party at the Army last night was highly successful and enjoyable.
—It costs only twenty-five cents to get a reserved seat for the opera of the Doctor of Alcantara.

—The trial of Mrs. Fogarty for murder has been continued until next fall, it having been impossible to secure a substitute for District Attorney Sale.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hayward arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Ohio, and will to-morrow start away again for their home in Decatur, Iowa.

—Heimstreet has a horse shoe hanging over the door of his drug-store, which has been there for two years past, and he says he has had good luck ever since he put it up. Who says there is nothing in signs?

—Mr. Robbins' walk and conversation are encouraging. Yesterday afternoon he took his first stroll. It was indoors, and consisted of walking from one room to another and looking out of the window.

—At a meeting of the Board of Education last evening, Captain Barry, of the First ward, was elected janitor of the Second ward school building, in place of George Kraus.

—Tim O'Rourke, who complained of the Allen brothers for cutting ice in the river and leaving the holes unprotected, has now his turn in court, having been complained of for a like offense. The case has been continued until next Saturday.

—Complaint has been made that certain parties have been using a vacant lot near St. Patrick's Catholic church, for the dumping of the vilest kind of offal. Steps have been taken to clean up the premises and bring the offenders to a conviction of the errors of their ways.

—Young Brown, who was arrested last week at Beloit on the charge of being one of the parties who blew open Reigart's safe at Clinton, had his examination at Clinton to-day, and was discharged. The result will not surprise any, as there seemed no ground for believing that he was in such business.

—There seems to be some doubt as to what has become of Fred Holden's case in Chicago. A few weeks ago a fellow named Holden was sentenced in the Criminal Court there for four years for burglary. Yesterday Thomas Holden was given a year in the house of correction, having pleaded guilty to petty larceny. Some think one, or both these was Fred, but his friends claim his case is still pending.

—The Janesville Guards have filed their articles of incorporation, and to-night they are to elect directors and officers. They are also talking of providing some temporary drill room, in which they can exercise with a great deal of earnestness with a view of competing for the prizes at the Milwaukee reunion, provided there are any big enough sums offered to make it an object. There is some talk also of securing the upper part of Bennett's new block as a permanent armory. In fact they are busy thinking and planning as to the future.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY FLETCHER &amp; EVERTON, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last evening stood at 49 degrees above zero; at 1 o'clock a. m. to-day at 49 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 49 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 39 degrees above. Cloudy and misty.

The indications to-day are for the upper lake region, colder westerly winds higher barometer, clear or cloudy weather, possibly followed in the western part by falling barometer, and variable winds.

WORKING IN MARBLE.

F. A. Bennett now has some fine specimens of his skill in marble working, there being at his shop a large amount of finished work which is well worth looking at, there being several monuments, which are indeed beautiful, besides a variety of headstones etc. He also has a large and varied supply of marble, from which to work more, being both from American quarries and from Italy. He is figuring prices close to cost now, and there seems no better time than now for those wanting anything in his line.

The best investment I ever made, said Judge R., as he lightly walked along to the surprise of his friends, was 50 cents for ST. JACOB'S OIL, which cured me of Gout.

THANKFUL FOR RELIEF.

Father Munich, of St. Mary's church, has received from the Archbishop of Dublin, Dr. McCabe, through his Secretary, an acknowledgment of the receipt of $10 contributed by St. Mary's church. The letter fully corroborates all that has been said concerning the suffering in Ireland, and closes with the following:

"His Grace prays God to bless you and those who have contributed to aid our poor people and from his heart sends you his blessing. He would wish to thank you and your flock individually, but as that would be impossible he is content to know that where his thanks cannot reach, the prayers of the poor will be sure to find their way in bringing down a blessing on their benefactors."

MALARIA DESTROYED.

G. A. J. Gaddis, of Brockville, Canada, certifies that he was prostrated by a malarial disease contracted in Texas, and was quickly and completely cured by the use of Warner's Safe Pills and Safe Bitters. He adds: "I shall never travel in that climate without your Safe Pills and Bitters as a part of my outfit."

HANDY AND HANDSOME.

The New Hall of the Odd Fellows and its Elegant Furnishings.

Arrangements for the Dedication Exercises.

The Date Fixed Upon.

The Odd Fellows' new hall is rapidly approaching completion, and ere the end of the month it will be furnished, dedicated, and occupied. The arrangements are so far completed that we are able to give an outline of the dedication exercises which are to be held on the 25th of this month. District Deputy S. B. Kenyon, will be in charge of the exercises at all the lodges in the county, and also from Whitewater, Fort Atkinson, Jefferson, Brodhead and Monroe.

A banquet is to be served in the large store of M. C. Smith, directly under the hall, and a grand ball is to be given in Apollo hall, at which Anderson's band is to furnish the music, assisted by Prof. Severance, of Milwaukee. Owing to the large number of the order, none but members and their families will be admitted to the dedication proper, but the supper and the dance will be open to all, and arrangements are being made so that all may be well cared for, however so many may come. The Committee having the matter in charge are wide-awake, and are leaving nothing undone to make the occasion one of the most successful and enjoyable which has ever marked the history of Odd Fellowship in this city.

The hall which is thus to be dedicated is indeed a beautiful one, and cannot but rank as among the very best in the State. It has every convenience. There is an entrance room, or vestibule, into which one first enters, off which is a coal room and janitor's closet, to which access can also be had directly from the main hall. Passing from the entrance room into the ante-room one finds it large and convenient, and opening from it is an examination room, also a regalia room, and a long wardrobe, with conveniences for easily caring for the outer wrappings of fully a hundred persons. As one steps from the ante-room into the hall proper, there greets the eye a spacious, lofty room indeed, with double front windows, facing upon Milwaukee street, and giving an ample light. Nor is ventilation forgotten, and throughout all the rooms there has been special care shown for the securing of fresh air, without the usual dangerous draughts.

In the upper story of the building is a large storage room, where extra chairs, etc., can be kept, and a room for the use of the Encampment.

The adornment and furnishings of the hall and rooms are lavish and provided for with rare good taste. The frescoing is in the hands of Rogers & Hutchinson, which is enough of an assurance as to its skillful execution. In the main hall the frescoing is almost complete, and the ceiling is graced by some fine border panel work, with a large floral design at each corner, and in the middle of the opposite borders are the three mystical links in gold upon a dark background. In the center of the ceiling is an elaborate piece of work, one of the finest center pieces to be seen in any hall. The fresco is deep, and is of a very unique and pleasing design. The dado is to harmonize with the other work of the brush, and the appearance of the ante room will be in keeping, the frescoing there to correspond with the main hall. Rogers & Hutchinson also have the painting, and their part in beautifying the hall is being done in the most artistic manner, and reflects great credit upon them.

The wood work and carpentering has fallen into good hands, it being done by George Colling, and when we say he has done his best, we need say no more. Besides the conveniences already spoken of there are two platforms one at the south end of the main hall for the principal chairs, and above the Noble Grand's position is an imposing canopy, which is to be gracefully draped. At the other end of the hall is another platform for the Vice Grand.

The furniture has been wisely secured of Britton & Kimball, who surely have done themselves proud, and shown that they can compete successfully with any manufacturers or dealers in this country. The goods procured of them are superb and cannot be bettered. The chairs for the officers number ten, and are of the usual lodge pattern, with tops of Gothic style. They are of black walnut, very richly carved and heavily veneered, and bear upon them the three links carved in white. These chairs are upholstered in leather, three being blue, six crimson, and one purple. The taller ones are about seven feet in height, and the others one foot shorter. The chairs for the members are sufficient in number to make a complete circuit of the sides of the main hall. They are armed chairs, of black walnut, with veneered backs and double cane seats, and are as comfortable as they are comely. The chairs for the conductors and wardens are the same, except that they have high cane backs. The chairs for the secretaries and treasurer are of the elegant office design, with cane seats and cane backs. Two desks have been provided for the use of these officers. They are of black walnut, richly veneered, and provided with desks on top for books and papers, and an ample supply of drawers and other conveniences, and in beauty they are in keeping with the rest of the furniture. Five pedestals, one for each of the principal chairs are also ready to put in place. They are of black walnut with veneered panels. A large pillar extension table has been made for the ante-room, which is not only handsome, but will prove a great convenience for the use of committees as well as for social feasts. The ante-room is also to have a large mirror and marble top stand for toilet purposes.

The carpeting for the hall has been purchased of Smith & Botwick. The main hall requires 306 yards, and is to be carpeted with Brussels of the best make, and a very unique and handsome design. The pattern needs to be seen to be really appreciated, for it is indescribable. It touches a little upon the oriental style but is not of that pattern. Its darker ground work is enlivened by bright flowers, and delicate tints, and the whole seems very rich and beautiful. Smith & Botwick have done their part well, as they always do.

The gas fixtures have been furnished by G. A. Libbey, who is a veteran in the business. The chandelier for the center of the main hall is twelve-light, with wide spreading arms, there being eight in the lower circle, and four in the upper. It is a massive yet pleasing design, in light bronze and gold. There is no one bit of furnishing on which mistakes are so often made as on chandeliers, but in this case it seems as though no other chandelier would meet the requirements of the room. It is just the one, and is indeed a beauty. On each side of the main hall there are three bracket lights, and two on each of the ends of the hall, these being of a design in keeping with the elegant chandelier which graces the center. The hall can with these be brilliantly lighted, and they are by no means the least pleasing of the many adornments.

From this outline it is evident that no hall in the State can outrank this in harmony of design and beauty of adornment. As is generally known, it is to be occupied jointly by Janesville City Lodge No. 90, and Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, who are together fitting and furnishing it in this elegant manner.

Rock River encampment No. 3, and America Lodge, Daughters of Rebecca, No. 25, are to occupy the same rooms for their meetings.

The joint committee who have the matter in charge consist of Volney Atwood, S. J. M. Putnam, S. B. Kenyon, F. Sonneborn, W. M. Eldredge, and C. C. Cheney. The committee have had a heavy task, but it is now nearly completed, and its success is ensured. They have shown good judgment, much enterprise, and to them should fall much of the credit.

The lodges, which have thus made for themselves an elegant home, are in a prosperous condition, and have not rashly weakened their resources, or overburdened and crippled themselves, though the expense, with all its careful cuttings and wise management, will probably reach close onto $2,000. The two lodges now number about 350 members, and those in these ranks are of such social and commercial standing that the order stands high in this community, and all unite in wishing them increased prosperity in their new home.

Both lodges have also made provisions for securing new official regalias throughout, and many of the members will also have new and neat regalias of their rank in the order, and these will appear for the first time at the dedication services.

Negotiations are pending for the purchase of a fine organ for the use of the lodges, which will make another addition to the attractiveness of the new hall.
